Rocking Chair Blues

If you ever wake up with jelly roll on your mind (x2) she play the blues to the congregation, she ain't trying no wine

She'll make you laugh, make you cry sit right down and moan you'll weep and moan baby then I'll here you say
 "I wonder where my loving babe has gone"

var: [Mama treat me right or you'll see I'm going away
 I won't be back until you change your ways
 I won't be back until you change your ways

I'm going to the river get a brand new rocking chair (x2) gonna ask Mr Tadpole "do the blues ever stop by here?"

the blues jumped a rabbit run him for a solid mile (x2)
 the rabbit turned over and cried like a natural child

here's a couple more verses, from Jimmy Blythe's version:

var: [Cried all last night, cried the night before (2x) gonna dry my eyes ain't gonna cry no more

Ain't it hard to love someone when they don't like you?(2x) keeps your mind tore up so you don't know what to do

I'm going to the river, take my rocking chair (2x)
 if these blues don't leave me gonna rock on away from here
